Honolulu, T. H., April 22nd, 1902.

Pacific Hardware Co., Ltd., Honolulu, T. H.

DEAR SIR:—The presence of the horn-fly pest in my herd of milch cows has been a cause of serious apprehension to me, both on account of the consequent deterioration in the condition of the cattle and the reduced production of milk. I am pleased to inform you that the application of the So-Bos-So Kilfly, which I purchased from you a few days since, has already resulted in a decided improvement in the condition of the cattle, as well as an increase of 20 per cent in the quantity of the milk produced, before the application of the Kilfly. Very truly yours,
PAUL R. ISENBERG.

So-Bos-So Kilfly Is a Liquid Mixture

designed to protect cows and horses from torture of flies. The preparation is positively harmless. It is used with splendid results as a disinfectant and germicide. The Electric Sprayer discharges the So-Bos-So (Kilfly) in a fine, broad spray. From 30 to 50 cows can be sprayed in a few moments. The Electric sprayer is detachable, and thus may be thoroughly cleaned. If your animals are troubled with lice, use So-Bos-So (Kilfly). It knocks them out. Spray your poultry house with So-Bos-So (Kilfly). It kills lice or any vermin that may infect the fowls. Sufferers from the Horn Fly should give Kilfly a trial. We are sole agents for the Territory of Hawaii.

BUDDHISTS AT WAILUKU

Their New Temple There.
Other News of Maui Isle.

MAUI, May 31.—The recent completion of a Buddhist temple in Wailuku shows how cosmopolitan the leading burg of Maui really is. The building in question is about forty feet square, gaudy in drab and gilt, with glittering images on a fantastic roof which recalls a kiosk or pagoda.

It is situated in the center of the town, opposite the Chinese Mission church. The frame work of the building, which was begun during the past winter, was once laid low by a fierce wind. A priest of the Buddhist belief has personally superintended the erection of the temple. A large number of Wailuku Japanese are followers of Buddha.

BRINGING MOUNTAIN WATER.

For a month past the Pioneer plantation of Lahaina has had fifty laborers engaged in digging a large ditch which is to lead the mountain water of Honokahau into the Kaaanapali lands of the plantation. Within another month it is probable that 500 Japanese will be at work excavating the waterway. The plantation has recently leased water from Honolua ranch, the property of H. P. Baldwin.

SPORTS AT WAILUKU.

At Wells' Park, Wailuku, during the afternoon of the 25th, the Morning Stars defeated the "Alerts" at baseball by a score of 19 to 13. The game was finely contested up to the seventh inning, standing 9 to 8. During this inning Dr. Boote, the pitcher of the Alerts, was struck on the head by a ball, which event, so it is stated, had much to do with the loss of the game. Messrs. Church and Cottrell were umpires. The game scheduled for June 1 is between the Alerts and Puunene.

By next week's steamer from Hawaii the Hilo baseball nine is expected in Wailuku, where on June 11, at Wells' Park, they will play a nine selected from all the members of the Maui Athletic Association and will be surely defeated, so the Wailuku boys say. During the Hilo men's visit to Wailuku the Athletic Association will give them a dance and otherwise entertain them. The Hilo people wish Wailuku baseballists to play in Hilo during July 4 and offer a prize of $100 in case Wailuku wins, and $50 in case of failure to vanquish the local players.

The Maui Athletic Association is soon to erect a grand stand at Wells' Park capable of seating 200 people. The field itself is not to be surrounded with a high board fence, but when admittance fees are charged each occupant of the pavilion will be provided with a ribbon and any one not sporting the required colors will be considered as persona non grata and expelled.

THE VOLCANIC AFTERGLOW.

Several evenings since—the 22nd—brilliant afterglows, caused probably by the presence of volcanic dust in the atmosphere, have been noted by Maui residents. The evening of the 22nd, after the sun had sunk behind the West Maui mountains, a greenish glare, brilliant and dazzling to the eyes, covered the grass, the trees and the whole landscape like a film. The glow in the sky overhead was not visible owing to black clouds which hung low.

Last evening, the 30th, the afterglow at 6:45, was of dull pink, high up in the western sky, and small, comparatively speaking, in extent. The tints changed to most delicate lavender and pea green. Finally, at 7 p. m., all the pretty shadings merged into a deep, gorgeous orange, which extended beyond the northern and southern ends of the West Maui mountains.

CORPUS CHRISTI.

Corpus Christi will be observed at the Wailuku Catholic Church on Sunday, June 1. A large number of people from all over Maui is expected to attend. During the whole day the Kahului Railroad Co. will run at reduced rates many special trains to and from Kihel, Paia, Puunene and other camps of the H. C. & S. Co.

MISCELLANEOUS.

During Wednesday evening, the 28th, Mahomet Khan gave a sleight of hand performance at Spreckelsville.

Next Wednesday, June 4th, the jury term of the Second Circuit Court opens at Wailuku.

During last week Major Wood of the Salvation Army paid a farewell visit to Wailuku and "swore in" five Japanese recruits. He has been transferred to the mainland.

During the week invitations have been received to the wedding reception of Reba Louise, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Porter Williams, and Mr. Arthur Douglas Baldwin, the son of Hon. H. P. Baldwin of Maui. The event will take place at Brightwood, Glenview, O., during the evening of June 17. Mr. A. D. Baldwin is practicing law in Cleveland, O. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin will visit Maui on their wedding tour.

Huelo plantation, the property of the Maui Sugar Co., is becoming popular among Porto Ricans. Most of the Porto Rican laborers formerly engaged on Wailuku plantations are now working in Huelo.

Weather—Heavy trade winds.

The McDonald Reception.

Mrs. J. T. McDonald entertained with a reception at the Hawaiian Hotel Saturday afternoon in honor of her mother and sister, Mrs. and Miss Hutchins. The parlor and lanai were decorated very artistically and Ellis' orchestra furnished music for the occasion. Those in the receiving line with Mrs. McDonald were Mrs. S. M. Damon, Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, Mrs. George Howard, Mrs. John Drew, Miss Stansbury, Mrs. E. O. White, Miss Charlotte Kruger, Mrs. Philip Frier, Mrs. George Fisher and Miss Fisher.

Unvarnished Facts About Good Varnish

Our advice is often asked on the varnish question and for floors we do not hesitate to recommend

SUPREMIS

It is a wonderful wood preserver, extremely hard, yet elastic, does not show scratches made by boot-heels, etc. Has all the beauty of wax finish and surpasses it in durability, besides being more desirable. Hardens with age and never cracks.
